Monitoring Your next monitoring check is on 6/19/2000 3:30:00 PM. Your Guardian Interlock ™ ignition system will remind you that you are due to make an appointment, three(3)days before the due date, with an indicator light on the control panel. If you have not had your system serviced within seven(7)days of the due date, the system will shut down and you will be unable to start your car. It will be your responsibility to have your car towed to the Guardian Interlock Customer Service Center.

Payment Your next payment of $70.00 is due during your next monitoring check. Payment must be made in full before service is performed. If payment is not made, the system may shut down and you may be unable to start your car. This will result in a service call which is your responsibility. I AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES OF THE GUARDIAN INTERLOCK RESPONSIBLE DRIVER PROGRAM ™.
